It is Election time once again. Yes... The endless commercials... Liars on parade...

We have put together a nice parody to help ease the stress of deciding which one to vote for. We are not trying to sway you. Just make you smile. So listen closely. And share it with your friends and enemies.

Bored with Mainstream?

Kim Burco and Bruce Shockley are at it week after week writing songs so that you will never run out of good material to listen to. Songs of life, love and country... Sad songs, funny songs... A little bit for everyone. Most of the songs are the country genre, but it is no surprise to hear a little Jazz, Rock and Blues stuck in there somewhere. You can listen to all of our songs (61 of them) at:

Visit the site. Sit a spell. And if you would... Let us know what you think. Like it? Hate it? We want to know.

WE CAN HANDLE THE TRUTH!! hehe..

Singers Wanted

The Factory is always on the lookout for good singers. We feel that the songs will be better received if there is a change in the lead vocal from time to time. Though Bruce does a nice job, having different sounds in the air just makes it more fun. Professional inquiries only. We are not running a day care. So send us an email if you are interested in participating in our projects. Hats off to Fred Hughes, Travis Toy, Buzz Pickens, Steve Rivers, Nate Cremeans and Kevin Henry for their musical contributions. OH!! And that cello guy whose name has eluded us at the moment.
